Letter from the President

Hello, NSTRA members!

Spring is upon us and most regions are trialing in full swing, with many having already held their Region Elimination Trials. It's a fun time of the year! We get to get our dogs out after the long Winter months.

The Garmin Invitational is in the books for 2026. Hats off to the Florida gang, who did an outstanding job of getting the grounds prepared and hosting the event. I wasn't able to attend, because I was working the booth at the Pheasant Fest in Minneapolis. I received a lot of positive feedback on how well things went and how great the grounds were! So, I just wanted to give a shout out on what a Great Job to all involved.

Also, congratulations to Bo Nutt and Nutts Tricky Ryder Sissy. 1st Runner-Up JT's Lethal Weapon - Jim Thomas; 2nd Runner-Up, Macy's Shadow Rusty - Dale Heaton; 3rd Runner-Up, Kickapoo's Samuel Adams - Etienne Lavoie; 4th Runner-Up TC's Chairman of the Board, Todd Craven; 5th Runner-Up - Tomoka's Smokin Converted - Pepper Ledbetter. Congratulations to all!

I also want to thank all the folks that pitched in and helped out at the Pheasant Forever Expo. held in Minneapolis this year. This is our second year attending the event. We get a little better each year at talking with potential new members and sponsors. This year we signed up 180 new members to our organization, as well as picked up a couple more new sponsors. We will roll out those new sponsors at a later date.

Good luck trialing everyone! Hope to see you out on the trial circuit.

Scott Townsend

NSTRA MEMBERS - Important things to remember!

Reminders – check back often!

National trials are the responsibility of the National Officers with input from the Board of Directors and the local co-chairs of national trials. Criteria for entry, which may be subject to change, for the original 5 National Trials is available in the reference section of the Rule Book beginning on page 41, Section 11. If a particular national trial is subject to changes in the entry criteria, there will be notice provided on the official entry form, in the magazine, on the national website, and/or by email if available.

To enter a national trial, you may submit a hard copy official entry form and payment, OR you may scan and email an official entry form with payment information, OR you may send by facsimile and official entry form with payment information, OR you may enter and pay on-line on the website. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Please note that additional new national trials may be added from time to time and do not yet appear in the current Rule Book. Please contact your National Officer Representative or the National Office staff for additional information regarding such trials. The current list of National Trials is as follows:

GARMIN INVITATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TRIAL Formerly known as Quail Forever. This is a revolving trial generally held in February.

TRIAL OF CHAMPIONS. This trial is held in Amo, Indiana, in April.

NATIONAL AMATEUR TRIAL OF CHAMPIONS. This trial is held in Amo, Indiana, in April.

PERFORMANCE TRIAL. This trial is a revolving trial generally held in June.

PURINA ENDURANCE CLASSIC. This is revolving trial generally held in September:

DOG OF THE YEAR. This trial is held in Amo, Indiana, in October.

TOP PERFORMANCE AWARD:
To be eligible:

*Dogs must have at least 20 open points accumulated in weekend trials between June 1 through May 31 of the applicable year. Once a dog is eligible, a schedule of scoring is applied based on the results at regional elimination trials and National Trials

*The Performance Trial will be the beginning national trial each year, even if it ends prior to June 1 in order to keep the number of national trials the same each year.

*The Regional Elimination trial results used in calculating Top Performance Awards is the regularly scheduled regional elimination championship in the qualifying year/season (only one regional can count per year). Regionals scheduled or rescheduled to be held after June 1 will apply to the previous year. Each regional elimination will have a point value of 600 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement until the last dog or points run out (1 – 600, 2 – 575, 3 – 550, etc.). The placement for the regional eliminations is determined by the score of the last round in which the dog ran. In addition, 100 points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for the second-place dog, 50 for the third and 25 for fourth.

*The National Trials results are calculated as follows: A dog must place in the top 32 dogs to receive a qualifying score from that trial. Each national trial will have a point value of 800 points. The value will drop 25 points per placement throughout the Saturday cut (1 – 800, 2 – 775, 3 – 750, etc.). The placement for the national trial is determined by the score of the last round in which the dog ran. In addition, 100 bonus points will be awarded to the Champion, 75 for second place, 50 for third and 25 for fourth.

HALL OF FAME NOMINATIONS:

Hall of Fame nominations will be accepted in a rolling calendar throughout the year. Send these nominations to the nation office, or to a national officer no later than March 31 of the year in which a dog is to be considered. Nominations of dogs to the NSTRA Hall of Fame are NOT “carried over” to following years. Plainly stated, a dog that does not get elected to the Hall of Fame in the year nominated must be re-submitted in order to be considered for election. The National Officers, in concert with the Board of Directors, make selections to the Hall of Fame each April.

TRIAL SCHEDULES:

Fall/winter trial schedules are due in the office by May 1. Spring/summer trial schedules are due in the office by Nov. 1. All trials must be published on the website 4 weeks prior to their running.

SANCTION FEES:

Trial sanction fees are required BEFORE a trial packet is mailed and before a trial may be “approved” in the system. Please pay all sanction fees at least 4 weeks prior to your trial date to ensure prompt mailing of the packet and to ensure that the trial may be drawn in a timely manner.

TRIAL REPORTS:

Trial reports and results should be entered into the trial draw system as soon as possible after a trial and no later than 10 days after the trial date. Overall results will not be approved until the reporting is complete. First place points and championships will not be confirmed or awarded until the reporting is complete. (This includes receipt of all registration paperwork for placing dogs.)

HOME REGION:

Members requesting a change of Home Region must do so, in writing, through the National Office between the dates of October 1 and January 1.

*Exception: A member who permanently relocates to within the boundaries of a Region, other than their Home Region, may make written application to the NSTRA office at any time to request a change in their Home Region.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIPS:

Associate memberships are available to members' spouses and children 18 years and under, still living at home. There must be at least one regular paid membership in the household to qualify. Associate members have the same rights as regular members with respect to participating in field trials (e.g., owning dogs, handling dogs, judging, bird planting, etc.). Associate member may not vote in any regional or national elections including rule or by-law changes, they cannot hold an office, and they do not receive a magazine.

RULE CHANGES:

Proposed rule changes or new additions shall be submitted sixty (60) days prior to the first day of the Trial of Champions and/or the Dog of the Year trial.

CONSTITUTION/BY-LAW CHANGES:

All proposed amendments to the Constitution and By-laws shall be submitted to the National Officers at least ninety (90) days prior to the first day of the Trial of Champions and/or the Dog of the Year trial.

REGION HIGH POINT:

Points earned in the qualifying rounds of a Regional Elimination or a Championship trial DO count towards the region's high point competition. Points earned in the finals of above trials DO NOT count towards the region's high point.

OWNERSHIP CHANGE:

Once a dog takes a NSTRA placement, any subsequent ownership changes must be sent to the NSTRA office. Please send a copy of new registration papers with the new owners' names to the office. The date of transfer will be the date shown on the registration papers.

UNREGISTERED DOGS:

As of June 1, 2022 a dog cannot run in a NSTRA trial without a system-generated dog profile or record. A trial coordinator cannot create the record. National staff or officers can only create the record once registration papers are received in the NSTRA office. In addition, there remain many "unapproved" dogs in the system. Unapproved dogs shall not be entered to run in trials until proper paperwork is received and appropriate action to create the record is completed. This can either be submitted by the owner or the trial chairman. We will accept copies by fax (317-839-4197), e-mail (office@nstra.org), or a photocopy by regular mail.

NSTRA DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS:

The NSTRA Distinguished Members award honors those extraordinary men and women whose contributions and achievements significantly helped develop, or continued to improve, the National Shoot to Retrieve Field Trial Association, Inc. This award will be presented annually at the Dog of the Year banquet. Nominations may be submitted at any time to the staff at the national office, to a National Officer, or to the current chair of the Distinguished Members Committee. A short description of the individual and their contributions to NSTRA should be sent to the national office. A picture of the individual should be included, if available. Contact the NSTRA office for a list of criteria. The committee will review all Nominations and verify contributions.

Decisions will be made not only by the information submitted but by any other information collected. The committee will make their decision by the April Board of Directors' meeting. A permanent plaque will be located at the NSTRA office with a smaller plaque awarded to the individual or their family if deceased.

The American Brittany

The American Brittany Club is a member club of the American Kennel Club and the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field. The Club is comprised of many regional Brittany Clubs located from coast to coast. Most of the Clubs hold field trials, conformation shows and hunt test events. The clubs also hold meetings, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to the Brittany owner. Membership in the American Brittany Club entitles you to a monthly issue of the American Brittany Magazine. This publication which began in 1949 keeps you abreast of what is happening in the Brittany world. The magazine contains reports of field trials, shows, hunt test and agility/obedience events, club activities and articles on the care and training of the Brittany. The magazine also has articles on hunting and general interest as well as listings of kennels, stud dogs and trainers.

Happy hunting!

Why NSTRA??

Are you a bird hunter with limited wild bird hunting opportunities? Are you looking for a way to include your entire family in your hunting experience? Do you have a hunting dog that needs to get out more? Are you willing to learn more, make new friends and enjoy the company of other sportsmen? NSTRA just may be the place for you!

Extend The Season!

National Shoot to Retrieve Field Trial Association, Inc. (NSTRA) was conceived by a group of hunters in the late 1960's as a way to extend the normal open upland bird hunting season from a few weeks to a longer period of time. Their common goal was to foster the growth of walking style quality type field trials for all pointing breed dogs. Incorporated in 1978, NSTRA is a non-profit association with service to the members and sportsmanship as its goal.

Over 1000 Local Field Trials!

Over the last 40+ years, NSTRA has developed as an organization that sponsors field trials across the United States and Central Canada. Over 1,000 local field trials are held annually for seasoned competitors and dogs as well as amateurs. Points earned in these trials are accumulated to earn championships for the dogs as well as qualify them for regional and national competitions. Judging seminars are held annually by instructors who actually compete in our sport to train our judges in a fair and consistent manner. Our rules are easy to understand and points are scored for each find and retrieve, ground coverage, obedience and backing. Using this points system, the dog with the most points wins! Depending on local weather conditions, trials are held all year long in various locations. You can check out your local trialing information on the website NSTRA Regions page. Trials are held either by clubs or individuals. Each region elects officers to make sure that all trialing is held to NSTRA standards. Seasoned members often take on the role of mentor for new members.

Family Fun!

Our trials are held in family friendly environments. Many families take advantage of our reduced membership pricing for associate members (spouses and children, 18 years of age and under still living at home). We have several young members who own and run their own dogs. The minimum age to be in the field is 10 years of age. To gun for oneself, you must be 16 year of age and hold a current Hunter's Safety Course card.

Championships

NSTRA dogs earn points by placing in the top 3 of local trials or the top 4 of National and Regional trials. For every 18 points (9 of which must be 1st place points) a dog earns another championship. We have an amateur program established in several regions that allows a dog to earn an amateur championship before going on to compete in open trialing.

Regional Championships

Each region holds a championship trial at the end of their trialing season. Qualified dogs are allowed the change to participate for a regional championship and to qualify for our premier National Trial the Dog of the Year.

National Championship Trials

NSTRA holds 5 National Championship Trials annually. Two of these (Trial of Champions and Dog of the Year) are held in our home location at the Conservation Bird Dog Club in Amo, Indiana. The other 3 trials are held elsewhere throughout the United States.

Membership

To participate in NSTRA events, you must be a member. This includes entering a dog, handling a dog, shooting for another handler, judging, bird handling and performing field marshal duties. Membership is a privilege and you must agree to obey all NSTRA rules and regulations. In addition to a current rules booklet, members receive a numbered membership card, a window decal and a patch. Full members receive our bi-monthly magazine and are allowed to vote in all regional and national elections of officers and on all proposed rule revisions. A lifetime membership is also available. Regular memberships are $75.00 per year; Associate memberships are $20 per year (Spouse or child of a regular member. Child must be 18 years old or younger and still living at home)

Sponsorship

For many years, we have had a special relationship with several well known companies. Each of these companies provides us with the means to continue to provide a quality trialing experience for you and your family.

2026 GARMIN INVITATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Winner: NUTT'S TRICKY RYDER'S SISSY — Bo Nutt (AR)
1st Runner-Up: JT'S LETHAL WEAPON — Jim Thomas (IN)
2nd Runner-Up: MACY'S SHADOW RUSTY — Dale Heaton (LST)
3rd Runner-Up: KICKAPOO'S SAMUEL ADAMS — Etienne Lavoie (CC)
4th Runner-Up: TC'S CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD — Todd Craven (OH)
5th Runner-Up TOMOKAS'S SMOKIN BEEN CONVERTED — Pepper Ledbetter (AL)

Palm trees swaying in the wind with cool mornings and warmer afternoon temperatures, was the setting for the 2026 Garmin Championship trial held at the Central Florida Field Trial grounds from February 25th thru February 28th. The CFFT club had all things ready as handlers came early to run the Pre-Trial and condition dogs and themselves to the fields.

Trial Chairman - Bo Nutt

Kitchen Crew - Linda Tindale,
Jim Bishop, and
Stephanie Daughterty

At 38 degrees Wednesday morning, a large crowd gathered for the flag ceremony after a hearty breakfast. David and Marcia Boyce were on hand to lead the ceremony. The flags being raised had flown over the Florida Capital and were certified to GMHT and Garmin by the state of Florida. Ron Huels sang the National Anthem as the flags were raised, a nice addition to the ceremony. Ron, a veteran, along with other veterans and First Responders were in attendance. Suvoyee Rudd prayed over the trial.

WEDNESDAY

All made ready for the 1st braces on A and C field. We would run 2 fields Wednesday and Thursday with the top 16 winners continuing on to Friday's elimination venue. A field's officials, judges Aerial Alveraz and Bob McCandless along with field marshal Cookie Anderson and bird handler Wyatt Sheriff were at the line at 7:30 ready for the start of the trial. Braces follow:

Thursday evening was another delicious meal donated by the Florida Field Trialers with Sam Ashmore’s speciality “Boston Butt Pork Roast”. It’s a “melt in your mouth” experience coming from the kitchen of Sam and Nancy Ashmore. Three tables held the accompanying dishes with items from deviled eggs to salads, to desserts. An extravaganza of food with Bill Sumpter’s cold slaw, also a favorite. (We’ve got the recipe). A birthday cake honoring Sharron Watson was also on the table and Walmart had out done themselves with this delicious cake. Trophies were given by the club for the Pre-Trial trial and thanked everyone for their support. The trophies for Wednesday and Thursday were presented and the draw was available for Friday’s trial. Bo presented several prizes he had obtained from various sponsors giving each person at the meal a ticket for the drawing. A special award was presented to Butch Butler – the Most Distinguished Award to a most deserving man. Tears rolled as this quiet, hardworking guy accepted his award. Butch was a great judge, a good handler and a worker for the Florida Region and CFFT birddog club. Congratulations Butch from all of NSTRA.

Bo Nutt

1. How did you get started in NSTRA?
  - I got started in NSTRA thanks to my dad and my grandpa, especially my papaw. I grew up watching them handle dogs and run trials, and I was always tagging along, soaking it all in. When I was 11 years old, I planted birds for my very first trial. That experience, being right in the middle of it, made me realize just how much I loved the sport. I've been following in my papaw's footsteps ever since.
2. What was the name of your first dog, and did you raise it yourself?
  - My first dog was named Ace, an orange and white English Pointer. I didn't raise him from a puppy, but I was fortunate to purchase him at three years old and had the opportunity to finish training him myself.
3. Did you raise and train Sissy by yourself?
  - Yes, I raised and trained Sissy from the time she was a pup. She had an incredible natural point and intensity, and I focused on steadying her up and working on bird handling. We logged a lot of hours in the field together, which really built our connection.
4. How did you prepare for the Garmin Championship?
  - Knowing the conditions in Florida would likely be hot, I made a point to work Sissy during the hottest parts of the day to help her acclimate. In addition, I focused heavily on her obedience, with the goal of maintaining control and helping her stay composed so she wouldn't overrun her nose.
5. Did you do anything different for the Garmin run than you do for your weekend runs?
  - I stayed consistent with what I know works for us. I kept Sissy on her normal routine, with the exception of giving her a few days off before the trial to ensure she was fresh and ready.
6. Which was the toughest brace during your week at the Garmin Championship?
  - Every brace at a national trial is challenging, but the final hour stood out as especially competitive. Sissy and Riggs located all 10 planted birds in just 16 minutes, with Sissy edging Riggs 6–4.
7. When did you actually think you had a chance at winning the championship?
  - Going into the third brace of the Top 6, we needed four birds to advance to the final hour. I knew it would be a challenge, but about eight minutes into the brace, Sissy pointed her fourth bird, and that's when I felt we truly had a chance to win. The first two braces had set a high bar and created a lot of pressure, but Sissy stepped up and answered the call.
8. Who has helped/influenced you the most in NSTRA?
  - When I had my first national win, I mentioned several mentors, and I still feel the same way—I've been fortunate to have a number of people help me along the way, and I truly appreciate all of them. I would hate to leave anyone out. Most importantly, my wife Gina has been my biggest supporter. She puts up with me being gone many weekends without complaint, and it certainly helps that she loves the dogs as much as I do. I always enjoy my trips when she's able to travel with me.
9. What would you tell a new handler the best way to prepare for a championship trial?
  - Focus on fundamentals. Build a solid bond with your dog, get them steady, and learn to read both your dog and the terrain. And don't underestimate the mental side—stay calm and treat each run like practice. You can't win it all in one moment, but you can lose it if you panic.
10. What is your favorite memory from the 2026 Garmin Championship?
  - I'll always remember Sissy taking the pressure off me throughout the trial. She made the cut in every brace in six to eight minutes, which is incredibly impressive to me. Being the chairman of the Garmin Championship, I also won't forget how the Florida members went above and beyond to help make it a great event. Their support meant a lot and played a big part in its success.

THE HEAT IS ON!

By: David Boyce
NSTRA Florida Member

I recently experienced an emergency with my bird dog during a Florida trial day. Conditions started mild but quickly became hot and humid. After running earlier in the day and later working a field for a short period, my dog suddenly became disoriented, stumbling, and trembling. My first thought was snakebite from the field we had just returned from. I checked him over and found no evidence of a snake bite. Then I thought, did he encounter a cane toad? A poisonous invasive toad in Florida can kill a dog if licked. I flushed his mouth with water. His condition didn't change; it worsened.

When I lifted the skin along his neck, it tented and did not return to normal, suggesting dehydration. At that point, I recognized he was likely experiencing heat exhaustion.

Being a physical therapist, I have witnessed and treated heat-related illness in athletes, but I had never experienced this in a dog. My training kicked in. I needed to cool his core body temperature immediately. I grabbed the hose and started soaking his stomach, neck, back, and head. After about 10 minutes, he started to come out of it.

So, what did I learn?

1. Know the Signs of Heat Exhaustion

- Staggering
- Disorientation
- Seizure-like activity
- Muscle tremors
- Excessive panting, dark red tongue
- Pale or white gums (severe sign)

2. Know How to Treat Heat Exhaustion Immediately

- Move the dog to a shaded area
- Begin cooling with cool or tepid water (not ice water) on the belly, groin, and paws
- Place the dog in an air-conditioned environment or use a fan
- Wet the dog's mouth and encourage small amounts of water
- Do not use ice baths, which may impair heat loss

3. Hydrate Properly Before, During, and After a Trial

- Consider adding electrolytes to your dog's water (consult your veterinarian)
- As a preventative measure, dunk your dog in water before and after runs when possible
- Provide frequent water opportunities in the field

4. Know When It's Safe to Return to the Field

After heat exhaustion, dogs should be pulled from activity and evaluated by a veterinarian. A 48–72-hour recovery period is typically recommended. Potential complications include:

- Thermoregulation problems
- Muscle breakdown (rhabdomyolysis)
- Kidney stress
- Other organ damage

Once a dog has had a heat-related injury, its risk of future heat-related injury increases.

5. Be Prepared Before It Happens

Have at least two emergency veterinary clinics saved in your phone, including numbers and addresses. When things go bad, you don't want to be Googling under pressure.

Summer is coming, and heat exhaustion can happen quickly, even on days that don't seem extreme and after relatively short periods of activity. Recognizing the signs early, incorporating preventative measures, and initiating the proper care can make a critical difference.

My dog recovered well, and I learned from the experience.

Enjoy your summer!

The Prodigal

By Randy Schultz

Bo, my knot-headed, curly-tailed, spotted, mostly-white Setter, lived a long and charmed life. He joined my path before I was skilled enough, or knowledgeable enough, to really know what I wanted in a bird dog. By that, I mean, besides the obvious traits of pointing, backing, retrieving, and hunting objectives, I wasn't to the point in my walk that I could say with affirmation, "I want this in a bird dog." Because of that semi-lack of direction, he was left to his own to develop a few unique ways of doing things. One of those endearing traits involved the age-old question of "Who on this team was working for whom?" I assumed Bo was working for me. I could not have been more wrong, as events would prove out in the oilfields of New Mexico.

Escaping the winter drudgery of semi-retirement, I headed to New Mexico to hunt Blue Quail. I arranged to meet a local guide to take me out one day and show me the ropes, since the habitat was totally foreign to anything I ever hunted. New Mexico is mostly public land, either BLM, Forest Service, or State land, with few landowner issues and minimal access issues. In most places, if you can see it, you can hunt it. Some of the best bird hunting is within yards of a pump jack (oil well) on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) land. It's your land. Public land. And it held birds- Blue Quail. My guide took me all over the area. While hunting, he gave me tips about habitat, good and bad. I learned to look for grass, sunflowers, ragweed, old pipes, pump jacks, mesquite trees (large bushes), and water. Although Blue Quail don't require liquid water, they will certainly take advantage of a creek, pond, or stock tank. He also taught me how many local folks will hunt them without dogs, by driving the roads, and jumping out to chase coveys that flush off the sides of the gravel roads. While that is not my cup of tea, it is an art form all its own. Later on, I had a chance to join in on-the-road-hunting for a day.

The second day, I was on my own. I drove to an area I had noticed, when I was following the guide. It was along a caliche road between two oil wells (pump jacks). Just off the road was a depression my guide called a "buffalo wallow". He explained that it's believed the low areas were caused by the buffalo (Bison--long since gone) using the area to wallow or get on their backs and use the sand to clean off dirt and old fur. It was Bo's turn to hunt. He was my top dog--a white English Setter with lots of leg and a great nose. It was a cold and sunny morning and promised to be a beautiful day in the desert. I knew birds were close. I could see their tracks in the sand.

Back then, we used a beeper collar. I had a good one, and it was fully charged. I released Bo, and he became birdy almost immediately. I watched him move with intention to the North. Farther and farther he went, until he was a white dot. They say it's so flat out there, you can watch your dog run off for a week. It only took about 10 minutes. The white dot went around a little mesquite bush and disappeared. I wasn't concerned at that time, because every time prior, he would show up to the right or left of his track, on the way back. If I didn't see him coming back, he was on point, and I would walk his trail and listen for the beeper. So, I headed out along his track, keeping an ear cocked for the beeper. I made it up to the mesquite bush where I last saw him, and still didn't hear a thing, so I turned to the west and began a loop around to the start. I spent all morning walking that area in loops of varying sizes. But I didn't see him, hear him, or even cut his track.

By nightfall, I was getting a little concerned. The weather was a factor, with the temperature falling into the low teens at night, and a steady wind from the north. At the start point, I took a kennel out of the bed of the truck, set it out behind a shrub, and put a bowl of water inside. I was going to put some food in there, too, but I could hear the coyotes singing, and I didn't want to attract them. I took off the wool sweater I'd worn for years (it had a nice, good stink to it) and laid it in the bottom of the crate. I'd like to say this was the first time this happened. I had the routine down pat. The sweater trick worked, normally.

The next day, I returned before light (about a 45-minute drive from the motel) and hoped to see him in the crate. He wasn't there, but lots of Bo-sized tracks were there, and the water was gone. It also looked like something slept in the crate. I called and moved, called and moved. Up the track where I had last seen him, I drove the roads and using the whistle all over the area in a large circular pattern. Whenever I saw anyone, including oil trucks, I stopped them and asked them if they had seen him. Then, I gave them my cell number, and asked them to call if they did. Everyone, to a man, was cordial and concerned. I knew the likelihood of him surviving in that cold night weather for many more days was slim. After, 3 solid days of searching, I put other dogs on the ground, and started to hunt while searching.

It was an excellent year for quail in New Mexico. I ran into a Game Warden, and after all the pleasantries, I told him I thought a person could walk in any direction and get birds up within a quarter mile. He was a bird hunter, and he agreed with me. So, while I could never truly enjoy the hunting, with Bo's whereabouts weighing heavily on me, I did get all the other dogs out each day. One day, I even called into an AM Radio local buy-sell talk show, while driving along a caliche two-track, and told my story about Bo, and the approximate location. I called the local paper and took out an ad with a $500 reward for a safe return of the knothead. I called the Sheriffs in three different counties and pleaded for them to keep an eye out and gave them my cell number. Free doughnuts for the department, I joked.

After five days, and five nights of windy sub-freezing temperatures, I resigned myself to the fact I would never see my dog alive. I figured someone would find a collar with some fur on it and call the number on the brass plate. I didn't want to think about him encountering one of the howling packs of coyotes. Although, it was never far from my mind. I knocked on ranch house doors, during the day. And, I met quite a few people out there in the high desert. Many of them owners of tens and hundreds of thousand of acres of land. To a person, they were concerned and not the hardened ranchers I wrongly thought they would be. One nice ranch house sat way off the road and was situated on a nice hill with a stunning view to the south. I parked and knocked on the door. An older, but vibrant woman answered the knock. We talked for a bit and I left my number. Later, my guide friend told me that was the Smith Ranch (not the real name) and that was Mrs. Smith. Her husband had a reputation of pulling his gun on local oil roughnecks when they left his gates open crossing his land. I agreed with him, since his cows got out and sometimes it took days to get them back. At any rate, the legend grew, and the townies were scared to death of him. Near the end of my trip, I was hunting 20 miles from his house, walking along a sand road, when a white truck pulled up and the window rolled down. I broke down my gun, held out my hand and introduced myself. "I'm John Smith," he said. I laughed and said, "You don't look nearly as mean and scary as they told me you were in town!" He smiled, too, and I told him I was that guy knocking on the door of his house in the middle of the day. He asked if I found my dog. "No, sir, I haven't. Frankly, I'm not holding out much hope right now. But I appreciate you and your men keeping an eye out for him." I gave him my number.

My worried wife called several times a day. Back then, before fracking and two more oil booms, there was no cell signal out in the desert. (Now, there's a better signal out there than in my living room at home.) When I made it back to civilization, I would check my voicemail in hopes someone had him. One evening, I was in Walmart, buying more shells, when my wife called. I gave her the update and impressed on her how hard I was looking for him. Right at that moment, a 'Walmart Associate' came up to me and said, "We don't have anymore #6 shot, but we have some 7 ½'s in 20 ga., sir." There was silence on the other end of the phone. It was quiet... too quiet. "So," she said in a low voice, "you've been working so hard trying to find Bo, you ran out of shells? How, exactly, does that work?" I did some dancing but managed to get out of that with only minor lacerations.

After seven days of searching, it came time to head home. I knew I would never see my knot headed, cover dog (2001 QU National Champion) again. The time spent looking seemed to dull the pain somewhat. I packed up and headed east before it got light. I had nearly 750 miles of Texas ahead of me and a headache that wouldn't go away. I made pretty good time, and in the afternoon, I was approaching the eastern end of Texas and looking for some diesel. My phone rang. I saw it was my wife, so I put her on speaker. "Pull Over, Right NOW!" she yelled into the phone. (I know it was crazy, but I looked in my rear-view mirror thinking I had a Trooper on my tail. Figure that one out.) "Why? What's going on?"

I said. "They found Bo! They found Bo!" she yelled. "Is he alive? Where is he? Who's got him?" I said. Finally, she calmed down some, "He's alive and OK. Some guy found him, and put him in his truck, finally got a cell signal, and called the first number on the collar," she said. She gave me his number. I pulled into the Flying J on I-10 at the Louisiana State line and called the number. A man answered, asked me my name and to describe the dog. After I passed the test, he told me what town he lived in, and I told him I'd be there that night to get him. I gassed up, turned the Beast around, and decided to find out if I really could go 10 miles per hour over the speed limit all the way across Texas.

I picked up Bo at 11:30 pm that night. The man was a retired coach, who hunted nearly every day. He said he spotted a white dog, on point, on the side of the road, way back in the oil field. He thought it odd, since he'd not seen a truck or any hunters. He pulled past the dog and stopped, got out and started walking back toward him, looking for hunters. Right then, a covey flushed out of the ditch, and the dog went after them. Shrugging his shoulders, he turned around and walked back along the road to his truck. When he got there, the dog was sitting by the driver's door, obviously thirsty and hungry. He put out some water, but all he had was a packet of cheese crackers. The dog wolfed them down. He checked the collar and noted the out of state phone numbers. He opened the door to the truck, and the dog jumped in the passenger seat and curled up. He drove all over the area looking for another truck or hunter, finding none, he headed for home 50 miles away, and a cell signal.

I took my dog, after eating an amazing Lasagna meal offered by the couple and went to a local motel. Bo slept on the bed next to me. It was the best sleep I had since I left Georgia. The next day, I got a call from Bo's rescuer, "Hey, Randy, I'm heading out today, and wondered if you'd like to go along?" I didn't hesitate, "Absolutely! I'll be ready when you get here!" I called the office and told them I'd be around for the next few days. Then, I called my wife and told her, not an actual lie, but a shaded truth, for sure. "Honey, Bo needs to rest a few days before he can travel. He's had a pretty rough time of it out here dodging coyotes, sand burrs, and looking for water. I'll start back in a few days." Once again, a deafening silence erupted from the telephone. "OK," she said, "I figured he would need to recover some of his strength to travel. Besides, Walmart probably got some of those 20 ga. #6's in by now, mister. You'd better come home with all those dogs, Randy Schultz!" Thank you, Lord, for the love of a good woman.

The rescuer and I hunted all day together. The way it worked was complex. We drove the oil field roads and watched for coveys to flush. Then, we jumped from the truck and ran (really, ran) after them, not giving them time to set up again. After a hundred yards, we would start picking up singles, and finally, the balance of the covey would flush. He had a year-old Vizsla male, and I took Ace, my Brit male. The dogs sat in the back seat, and when the truck slammed to a stop and the door came open, they jumped over the front seat and out the door, looking for flying quail. The guns were kept in the bed of the truck. After the first few coveys, we could be on the ground, guns loaded, dogs in front of us, and quail in sight in under five seconds. We limited by noon. After lunch, I asked him if he got the local paper. He said he did, and said he saw my ad for the return of Bo, but it was after I'd already picked him up. I reached for my checkbook and asked him how I should make it out. It was the easiest $500 I ever spent.

Bo was found 21 miles, as the crow flies, from where I put him out. He wasn't dehydrated, but he was a little thinner. We think he could get plenty of water in the numerous stock tanks, but I'm not sure he had anything to eat the entire time he was gone. Other than getting out of the wind behind a dune or huddled up against some oil rig, he would have no shelter against the cold. He is a scrawny, scrappy, hard nosed English Setter, a damn fine bird dog, and a survivor. He lived 12 ½ years and hunted up until a month before he died. I think that's a pretty fine way to finish.
